DESERTMICRO INTRODUCES WEBMANAGER, A COMPLETE WEB-BASED BILLING AND PAYMENT SYSTEM WITH ONLINE CUSTOMER SUPPORT

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (October 25, 2010) – DesertMicro™, the Florida-based provider of leading-edge software solutions for waste management, recycling and logistics companies, announced the new release of WebManager, the complete paperless billing and payment system with online customer portal for 24-hour customer service.

With WebManager, DesertMicro clients can better stay on top of billing and payments by managing, tracking and organizing their transactions online through their own branded and secured Web sites.

“We continuously advance our products based on the needs of waste and recycling companies who are looking to eliminate inefficiencies through automation,” said Barry Grahek, CEO and president of DesertMicro. “Since we launched WebManager in our annual upgrade, our customers have experienced significant cost reduction in their billing process and improved cash flow as more of their customers sign up for automatic bill pay.”

WebManager gives DesertMicro customers the ability to deliver their billing electronically through their Web site, reducing billing costs by up to 42 percent. Their customers can access their accounts online to submit service requests and also make online payments, reducing payment application errors by an average of 14 percent.
